Foreword

The idea of individuality has assumed many arguments throughout society, and with time, scholars have devoted much thought to just what the individual is and how he becomes that individual. Theologians purport that the individual is the inner self expressed through some mystical evolution, and finally, through awareness of natural capabilities. Sociologists argue that there is no individual; for each of us have a predetermined role which defines our function in whatever we do, and as such, it dictates who we are. Psychologists, philosophers, biologists and varied other esoterics have also sought to systematically prescribe the nature of the individual to some form of humanistic or scientific discipline.

Individuality has become very much a search for identity, and just as this search has affected the thinking of the intellect elite, it has influenced the direction of the layman as well. In this regard, we at A & T have been a distinct lot. We have not tended to systematically order our lives. We have wrestled with identity, and though we have felt a world-wide social influence, we have become a people who accept ourselves through values and reinforcements based upon the concept of self and existence. We are Aggies, and though others may cast us in all types of categories, We Are Somebody.

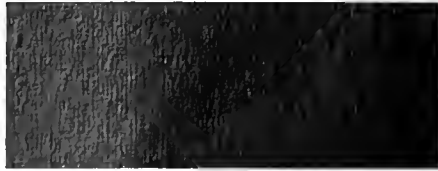

Our roots become planted in early fall with school registration. With incessant lines, everything seems a matter of obscurity. Freshmen find complexity and a sort of strangeness. Upperclassmen find confusion. But this is only the first few days — a beginning. Soon complexity, strangeness and confusion dissolve. Aggie life becomes routine. Classroom buildings come out of summer hibernation, and though they do not become havens of study, they become caught up in the many and varying purposes of those who enter and leave them. Other buildings become places of social exchange. They too may not be havens of any sort, but they likewise become functional in the lives of those who frequent them. These are Aggie people — a people conquering the struggle for identity.

Football season is underway. Somewhere else to go, and something else to do. Whether the weather is mild or cold, sunny or rainy, the crowds gather in mass to cheer the Aggie team onward. Soon homecoming ventures upon us: coronation; pre-dawn; a parade and the game. The crowd is even larger. Friends, alumni, and even well wishers become part of the crowd. But they are all Aggies, and though the team may win or lose, we all learn to be confident in victory and to be proud in defeat. Basketball season is no different; for as Aggies we have learned to rally to the university's cause, and no matter what the outcome, we hold our heads high and continue to move forward.

We find variety by doing much of whatever pleases us. There are special occasions, good entertainment; and moments of leisure. Making noise, loud stereos and televisions, ringing telephones, gossiping friends and throwing parties — all are means through which some monotony is broken. Whatever our form of relaxation, it is not waste. We are Aggies, and to us every situation becomes an experience — an emotional liberation or even a thought provocation.

The pace of the classroom is never of question. Just as the weather brings fall to a sudden end, we find ourselves suddenly at the end of a semester. The returns are many. For some, it means acceleration to some higher level. To still others, it has been waste. Nevertheless, if it has been nothing else, the classroom has been the most challenging aspect of Aggie life. The instructor has been the mediator, bringing with him knowledge and experience and the vital ability to move the learning student into greater depths of knowledge. Grasping the many offerings of the classroom, the student is made a more complete person. His learning has not been all theory, listening and acceptance.

So begins this volume of the Ayantee — the story of a people attempting to make education useful through practical experience and ultimately realizing that education seeks to develop rather than to alter the individual. Whatever he is upon entering here, he leaves as a man of virtue and blessed with the ability to reason through interpretation, understanding and awareness. He is an Aggie, and he is somebody.

THE CHOICE OF LIFE

I have but a day,
To live or die
To love or hate.
Yet I now wonder,
If it's too late
To be good or
Too early to say.

William Cox

Ain't nothing but a nod!

Let's blow the ____ place up!

Cheese-e-e-!

Ain't too bad!

Oh my gosh, wonder meat again!

ME

Send me the moon, the stars and all of Earth's greatest possessions.
Cover me with the respect of all mankind whether I be good or bad.
Try to understand not only who I am, but also who I live
to be.
And ask not of me those promises that I wish not to fulfill.

For I belong, not as a group, but as an individual,
Gifted with the mind and intelligence to be as I desire,
Guided not by the instinct or the feelings of others,
Rather by the feelings off-sprung by the inner soul
And inner mind.

Tears, blood and laughter are my greatest possessions
because this is why I live,
Do me, the honor of letting me experience them when and where I so feel.
For my life is mine to live, to destroy and to share with whom I please.

Dare not erase the path that I wish to set for my off-springs.
Engraving into my mind that I am wrong and that the life
I once led was wrong.
It is my intention to give life one of its greatest treasures, self-expression.
To let the inner man live as he wishes, letting the world be a better place to live.

How long can one live in such a volunarious world?
Only God knows.
But to each we can say that everyone who has lived as himself has had a happy and satisfying life.
Satisfying not to others, but to himself because he has experienced those joys that he desired,
Satisfying because he has the knowledge of knowing that his life was for himself.

Ask not of me to read those books that I care nothing about,
For deep within my mind I am able to intake those words that best fit my taste,
Beseech yourself before trying to intoxicate my mind
with your moral ethics,
Whether you should force your ideas upon me, or whether
I have the right to accept them on my own.

What I ask of you isn't much and requires no thought of you whatsoever,
It's like the animals that you just patiently wait until nature has taken its course,
And it's like the motorless planes that glide freely
in the air,
For all I want to be free; Free with no strings attached;
To be simply as I want to be — ME!

Edwin L. Gay

Women are the weaker sex.
An old saying. Is it true?
Long ago? Now is worn off the hex.
Frankly, what can't we do?

Cleaning, washing, and being a mother
These are duties of another.
Man, robot, take your pick.
The woman now in the world ticks.

If God's plan was:
Marriage to rear children
Man to beget Children
Woman to bear children
But who to love and care for children?

Women, you've been cursed!
No longer are you gifted to be a Mother.
You must work and compete with the other.

One Step Off

Slowly, slowly tumbling down

Grasping desperately to hold ground

Fading helplessly with the speed of wings

Recklessly fighting, weakening by the degree

Trying so hard just to be free

Barbareously surging a last stand to make good

Not so my friends – no good

Hilariously sickening till nothing else matters at all

Damn the whole mess, what the hell if I fall.

Dear A. & T. THE ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., Dear A. and T.

A Monument indeed!

Around thy base with grateful hearts

Behold thy students kneel.

We bless the power that gave thee birth

To help us in our need.

We'll ever strive while here on earth

All loyalty to yield.

CHORUS

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T.

Thy students turn from thee,

To spread thy trophies year by year

From Dare to Cherokee.

(II) Dear A. and T., Dear A. and T.

The signet thou shalt be,

Set by our own great Commonwealth,

Proud booster of the free;

She'd have the record of her worth

On granite not inscribed,

Nay! Let the children of her birth

Proclaim it by their lives.

(III) Dear A. and T., Dear A. and T.

Henceforth our aim shall be,

By precepts wise and deeds more sure

To bless the State through thee.

The arts of industry to wield

Against the idle foe.

A harvest rich from ripened fields

Of what thy students sow.

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet Come to the place for which our father sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered;
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past, Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

DEDICATION

"Ruskin once said that when we fail to praise a man who deserves praise, two sad things happen; we run a chance of driving him from the right road for want of encouragement, and we deprive ourselves on one of the very happiest of our privileges, the privilege of rewarding labor that deserves a reward."

Therefore, let us give one whom we have admired, the patience, endurance, compassion, understanding, wisdom and concern that he has exhibited toward us.

We will forever remain grateful to him for his ceaseless efforts and fierce control firmly imprinted in the lives of the football team.

To draw no envy, COACH HORNSBY HOWELL, on thy name, we remove you from all severe criticism and place you upon wreath of honor and distinction. For you have displayed all these outstanding characteristics to mold your figure into being the dynamic person we chose.

So it is with deep gratitude and respect that we, the 1971 yearbook staff, dedicate this, the 1971 edition of the AYANTEE to one whom we all love, cherish and respect...

All you Niggers with the rap and fro
You can't get unity by watching your hair grow.
All we need is Unity
And with Unity we can own a plenty
But isn't it a pity we don't have unity.

Ah you, with the fro and clinched fist saying,

Don't curse me and call me a mother . . . .

Freedom, oh Freedom, where have you been hiding,

The Blacks have been looking for you everywhere.

We struggle from corner to corner to be free.

But one day we dream of Black, Black America.

The pride within us had shown no joy, which one day we shall overcome.

We have been in the dark for years and years.

finally we have the light.

But one day we dream of a Black, Black America.

The Inner Being

Beyond the reachless bounds of man
The uttermost self dwells unseen unheard.
Burrowed into a state of safety and calm
Waiting patiently to be found.
Through the incompressible warps of never
A glimpse, perchance, of the remarkable ever.
Far great than the isles of eternity
The self stands bold, untamed, running free
Leaping over the sill notions of beings
Daring to out do the wildest of dreams.
Afraid, so afraid, under a pretext of boldness,
Fumbling, almost falling yet still on its feet.
Tracing the paths of forerunners now gone,
Trespassing into the forbidden zone.
Not caring who gets hurt or scarred
Laughing beastially at the once free, now barred.
Damn the thing, Damn the thing!!!
Many these sounds throughout the heavens ring.
Damn the thing, Damn the thing!!!
But what is it, the inner most being?
Never to be heard, seen, touched for feeling?
Damn the thing? How? Yet why?
The whole bloody thing will make one cry.

Niggers Are Scared Of Revolution

"But Niggers shouldn't be scared of revolution

because revolution is nothing but change and all Niggers do is change.

Niggers come in from work and change into pumping clothes and hit the street to make some quick change.

Niggers change their hair from black to red to blond and hope like hell their looks will

change

Niggers kill other Niggers just because one didn't receive the correct change.

Niggers change, change, change.

You hear Niggers say, "Things are changing, things are changing."

Yeah, things, are changing.

Niggers change into black Nigger things — black Niggers things that go through all kinds of changes —

the change in the day that makes them rant and rave

BLACK POWER! BLACK POWER!

and the change that come over them

at night as they sigh and moan white thighs! ooh, white thighs! . . .

But when it comes for real change

Niggers are scared of revolution."

Pearl is majoring in Business Education at A&T Following graduation next June, she hopes to attend graduate school at the University of Hartford, then launch a teaching career. She enjoys sports, creative dancing and listening to all kinds of music

Daring and lovely Sister Sandra Belcher represents the Senior Class. It was certainly hard without a doubt to let this beautiful young lady go, for she was her class' first queen and their last. Sister Sandra is a resident of Martinsville, Va. She is a business administration major and an active member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Truly Sandra represents the tradition of beautiful black queens on our campus; but these words aren't enough. We would like to sum up her personality in the poem below.

To: Sandy

"You're a very lovely person who cares how others feel —
Your warm, out-going nature is part of your appeal.
No wonder people like you and it isn't hard to see
Why the phrase 'a lovely person'
Describes you perfectly."

Sister Patricia Thompson, a resident of Charlotte, N.C., reigns as the Beautiful Black Miss Junior. Ambitious-minded, talented Pat is a perfect example of our Black women.

At A & T, she is a Business Administration major and is engaged in many campus curriculum activities. Along with these, Pat is a member of the just organized Tau Phi Theta Sorority. "More Power" to the Junior Class for choosing such a sweet, deserving Black Queen to represent them.

Sister Maridell Blackman

Sister Maridell Blackman, a Social Studies major from Lancaster, South Carolina, was chosen by the members of the AYANTEE Staff as our own MISS AYANTEE. Always smiling, Mandell adds a pleasant atmosphere whenever she is with us.

As our layout editor, she has served her position well. As our beautiful queen, she is one whom we feel will always be our MISS AYANTEE.

To A Wayward Sweetheart

My love for you was like a red hot fire
Ever burning with tender loving care.
My life was lived for you my dear
So happy was I when you were near.

You were the breath of my life,
The strength to my frail body against man's strife.
All things of earth in the reach of my hands
Became solely yours at your only demand.

Was I so unkind? So thoughtless? So untrue?
Did I not rack heaven and earth to prove my love for you?
What about the precious moments shared between just we.
Such moments I wouldn't trade for all the perils in the sea.

But when I saw you walk down the street;
In a strange endeavor of other men to meet,
My love changed to a ravishous fire
That filled me with envy, anger, and I
Like other love stricken men,
Plotted of some evil that caused me to sin.

But now that I have let you go
I have found peace with my sinful soul.
Yet I remember the days's forlorn
When you were my love, but my love you're no more.

The Epicureans is an elite service and social order for men which was founded at A and T in 1967 by several male students from Durham, N.C. The organization was primarily established to give students from Durham an opportunity to perform constructive tasks while, at the same time, developing an "esprit de corps" which would lead to a closely knit group of men from the same city working together with the same goals.

Much of the activity of the Epicureans has been centered around the recruitment of students from Durham and its surrounding areas through counseling, securing and distributing information, and sponsoring service and social functions.

The Epicureans is a young organization, and although it has been extremely active, much of its operation is built around projected plans for future implementation. These plans include open membership for all students without residency requirements, the establishment of chapters on college campuses throughout the state, and several projects for campus beautification and renovation.

Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity was founded December 16, 1925 at Lafayette College in Easton Pennsylvania. With leadership and service as its cardinal principles, the Fraternity has used the Student Oath and Law as the driving force shaping its relationship with humanity.

Furthering the founding principles of the fraternity, Kappa Psi Chapter was founded in 1952. Giving service to the University as well as the Greensboro community, Kappa Psi has had a history characterized by the development of friendship, the promotion of service to mankind and the realization of the meaning of the freedoms upon which America was founded.

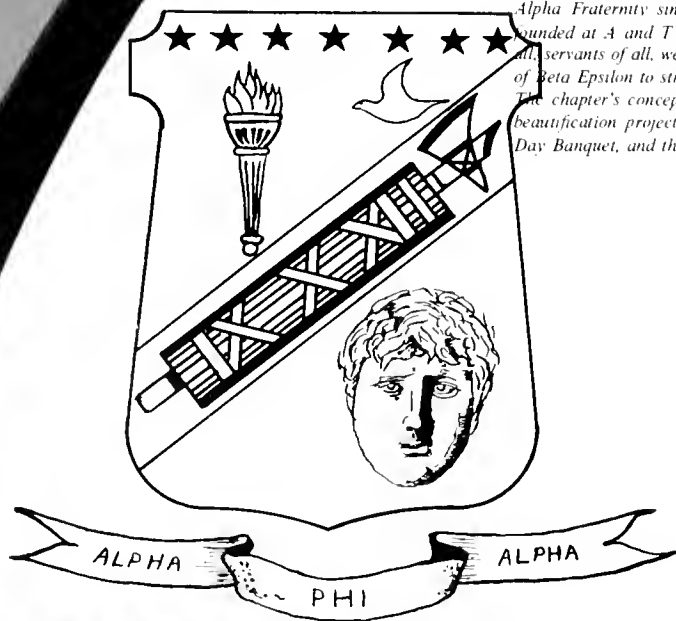

Trefoils

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha are men interested in scholarship, men interested in the pursuit of knowledge; men who because of their desire to learn, have set themselves apart from the average and have dedicated themselves to the search for the unknown.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity was founded on December 4, 1906, on the campus of Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. With the distinction of being the first Greek letter fraternity for Black college men, more than 45,000 brothers have been initiated into the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity since its founding. Beta Epsilon Chapter was founded at A and T on March 28, 1929. Alpha's motto: "First of all, servants of all, we shall transcend all" has inspired the members of Beta Epsilon to strive to convert this principle into a description. The chapter's concept of awareness is demonstrated in its campus beautification project, Voter Registration Drives, Alpha Founders Day Banquet, and the Annual Alpha Ball.

Sisterhood”*

*"She may be an Omega Sweetheart,
 Or a dreamgirl of ΑΦΑ.
 She may wear a Kappa diamond,
 Or her love a Sigma be.
 But if she wears the Delta symbol
 Then her first love is DST."*

*"Upon Indiana soil we lay our foundation
Kappa Alpha Psi shall be our creation
Let us build brother hood wherever we go
Until campus after campus will Kappa men know.
Teaching men to achieve shall be our role
The world our stage, achievement our goal.
And so here, now we meet, unhappy though free
As our burning souls cry, 'Lord, I see Fraterniv'."*

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was founded on January 5, 1911 at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. Alpha Nu Chapter was founded at A and T in 1933 with intellectual, cultural and social achievement as the fundamental purpose.

Maintaining a high standard of Greek life, the men of Alpha Nu have followed through with a strong background of leadership and participation. Among the chapter projects are Kappa Kids, Voter Registration Drives, Community Building, Top 25 Freshmen Award, Founders Day, Kappa Weekend, and the Kappa Scholarship Award.

These include Finer Womanhood Week, Youth Conferences, and the Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency.

On campus, Zeta Alpha chapter has continued to exemplify the goals of the sorority. Many of its most noteworthy projects include volunteer work, scholarships, food drives, Annual Debutante Ball, and the Zeta Blue and White Ball.

"Oh Zeta Dear, We love thee and adore thee
To thee we praise a life of loyalty
And as we labor for thy honor, day by day
We pray that God will guide us on our way."

They tell us to forget
Democracy is spurned.
They tell us to forget
The Bill of Rights is burned.
Three hundred years we slaved,
We slave and suffer yet:
Though flesh and bone rebel,

Oh, how can we forget
Our human rights denied?
Oh, how can we forget
Our manhood crucified?
When Justice is profaned
And plea with curse is met,
When Freedom's gates are barred,
Oh, how can we forget?

What to the American slave is your Fourth of July? I answer: a day that reveals to him, more than all other days in the year, the gross injustice and cruelty to which he is the constant victim. To him your celebration is a sham; your boasted liberty, an unholy license; your national greatness, swelling vanity; your sounds of rejoicing are empty and heartless; your denunciation of tyrants, brass-fronted impudence; your shouts of liberty and equality, hollow mockery; your prayers and hymns, your sermons and thanksgivings, with all your religious parade and solemnity, are to him, more bombast, fraud, deception, impiety and hypocrisy — a thin veil to cover up crimes which would disgrace a nation of savages . . .

A Wise Fool Perhaps

In the kingdom of Kool, there once live a Fool
Who directed his life by the Golden Rule.

And while others did shout, and with arrogance pout –
He sought to find what things were truly about.

While some cursed to the core a simple school chore,
He studied Black power, Jehovah, the War.

With reports of "God's Dead" in the back of his head,
He drew forth his Bible and fervently read:
"In the last day shall come a minority sum, saying –
"Where is He?" Well avoid them – they're wrong.

When the door of time close on the chance for their souls,
In the bottom of Hades they'll pay for their shows.

Is Hanoi insane? Is Nixon a King?
Will Agnew eventually wreck everything

Who made these People of Flower? Hurrah for Black Power!
Oh Father in heaven – is this our last hour?

What a reasonable sight – an expensive moon flight
While the Poverty Program may fail – is it right?

Should Red China come in? Would she then be our friend?
If we let her come with us and the U.N.?

Red China I said? With Ho Chi at its head?
Us Blacks would sure rather be Black than be red!

With overpopulation now plaguing each nation,
How can we save ourselves in this tight situation?

Too angry the slums, too shaky the calm –
Let us end it all now with one gigantic bomb!

FRESHMEN

Black Men We Are

They say we're ignorant, superstitious and Black
And like our fathers, scared to fight back;
Many years have passed – we're been treated like toys
And our Black men have been labeled "boys."

With poor jobs, little money and scarce food,
Very few Blacks are in non-violent moods;
Little Willie Joe begs for food for his mouth,
Yes, little Willie Joe, he lives in the South.

But soon it all will come to an end
And Willie Joe and I will be Black men again.
The Black man has suffered a tremendous fall,
But he's beginning to stand – stand pretty tall.

It's true we're ignorant, superstitious and Black
But unlike our fathers, we are fighting back;
Black men we are . . . but for you "boys" we'll be
But damnit you remember – We'll Die To Be Free!!

– Rickey Reed

See how they run.
Sticks, bottles, knives, guns.
Hit, break, crush
Doctrines and plans for a new tomorrow
Listen, understand, or die, die, die.

"Is your Soul on Ice?"
"Frozen by years of death?"
"Will tomorrow restore it?"
"Hurry, world, no time is yesterday."
Yesterday is dead.

Wake up, World.
We have something to say
Stop. Hear us. Accept us.
A change is coming tomorrow
We are it. Prepare for us.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 6, 1971

TO: Members of the 1971 Graduating Class

GREETINGS:

It is a pleasure to extend warm congratulations to you as you reach this important milestone in your life. The Class of 1971 will now join the caravan of "Aggies" in making their contributions to give our civilization renewed thrust toward the realization of a "Great Society."

During your undergraduate years here, I sincerely hope that you have been consumed with a burning desire to utilize your full talents in an attempt to extend the frontiers of freedom and opportunity for all people to inestimable proportions. This task can be made easy if you will remember, as you leave the University, to keep your talents sharpened with an incessant desire for learning, a continued search for truth and a firm belief in the goodness of man.

As you join the many graduates of this great University, it is my prayer that your achievements will be eminent, your contributions to society will be immeasurable, and that the prestige of North Carolina A. & T. State University will be heightened by your determination and accomplishments. I am confident that the 1971 graduating class will meet these challenges with success, carrying with it the "Aggie Spirit."

Kindest regards.

Yours truly,

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE
STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Dear Student Body

Since its founding in 1892, The Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina, now the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University has grown from a one building institution of learning for Negroes into a multi-million dollar cradle of Black Power. It is often at time quite confusing, however, in our struggle to acquire an education, the pre-er-cans of blacks school (white owned) versus white schools. The black college has been asked to do too much with too little for too long. The country as a whole, and I'm thinking here of those who have both the resources and the obligation to support higher education, has taken the black college campus for granted.

The black college have accomplished much in the past. Maybe we were unable to accomplish all we set out to do at the moment, and in this time we may not accomplish as much in the future as they have accomplished in the past. Black college suffer greatly, unable to acquire top flight educators and they must operate on budgets designed to destroy the potency of the black college. Yet in the face of all that is wrong, there are lurking advantages to be gained by attending a black college. One only needs a shovel to dig them up. The advantages often lay buried beneath the two top priorities which are To Turn and to be Turned Lily White. Struggling below this huge pile of nothing lies the opportunity to meet and know black people from all over the country. It is not unique for the black student to gather that unity that comes from being with black people and a concern for what black people ought to be about.

Are black colleges doing all that they could be doing for the black student? To be truthful, I will have to admit it is not, but it is doing a hell-of-a-lot more than any other institution in this country today. If there is a possibility of liberation then it's will be with the black college campus.

Yes, my fellow students if we are to be liberated it will be through the black college, the North Carolina A & T State University is and will serve as our liberator.

We must face, come to grips, and protect and defend our cherished, A & T. We Aggies, are a proud and noble lot and we must not allow white American to sever the black head from the black body, that is to disperse elite blacks and thus make it difficult for the black masses to have qualified and committed black leadership. We must fight-off white America's attempts to crush black consciences. Let us be true to ourselves. Let us be true to our people, Let us be true to A & T. Aggie born, Aggie bread, and when we die, Lord Knows we will be Aggie Dead.

I have the honor and privilege to remain your fellow Aggie affectionately forever faithful,
Matthew Simpson

DEATH MAN'S PRAYER

When Death lay me still;
Let them that hated me,
Not vanish from thou sight.
Let them that cherished me,
Live ever to be free.
Let them that ridiculed me
Carry the burdens of life.
Let them that loved me,
Live to save humanity.
Let them that had hope for me,
Find peace and happiness to endure.
Let them that failed with me,
Eat the fruits of success.
Let them that lived with and after me,
Live not in a world of Delusion,
Creating false Illusions, that will Lead to no concrete Conclusions.

— William Cox

Epitaph

Many individuals have come to think of freedom as a measurable quality controlled by some social or political force. To others, freedom is an overt action through which an individual expresses his will in view of certain prescribed laws which allow members of a society to live as they desire when it is not infringing upon the desires or the wills of others in that society, or when that expression becomes a function of another member's action.

In an age such as ours, freedom must be thought of as an art. It cannot be measured in terms of certain prescriptions or as some tangible attribute of institutionalized forces. Freedom is the ability to think. It is a mental quality which can only be restricted by an individual's attitudes. Through this, a person realizes he can do all of those things which he wishes to do and many things he never realized were possible.

For this reason, the 1971 Ayatce Staff has tried to bring to you a yearbook that reflects the moods, modes, and thinking of the campus as it now projects itself to those who comprise it, to the surrounding communities, and to the world. Our opportunities are abundant and meaningful, and as we end this volume, we find hope in the thought that all who have viewed this yearbook will develop some lasting philosophy which will give direction and which will not be sacrificed for the trivial and passing trends that float by each day.

Before closing, I wish to give special appreciation to those who have worked with the staff, and through some kind gesture, have encouraged us to do our best. With deepest sincerity, we express gratitude to Jimmie Walker, Earnestine Durham, Larry Butler, Jerry Palmer, Miss Portia Hart, Matthew Simpson and Pearl Brown who have asked so little and did so much.

Power!!
